In the unlikely event that the training has been over-booked, we will contact you to either change to a different date or arrange a refund to the payment card.

If you do not receive a confirmation email please check your junk mailbox first, before contacting us to confirm the status of your order.

When we have processed your booking we will send you an invoice or receipt, and a delegate confirmation by email. This usually takes up to 24 hours.

Substituting your place for another colleague/person

At any stage after the booking is made, if you wish to transfer a place on a course to another delegate please email your request to events@qsa.org.uk and we will send an acknowledgement once processed.

Transferring courses

Please email your request to events@qsa.org.uk and we will contact you to confirm your transfer. Bookings can be transferred once.

Cancelling courses

If you are not able to attend your course or you wish to cancel and you do not wish to transfer an alternative date in the future, the following charges will apply:

- 21+ working days prior to the event – 20%
- 1-20 working days prior to the event – 100%
- Non-attendance on the day – 100%

Please email your full booking details to events@qsa.org.uk and we will contact you to confirm the cancellation.
